A Universal two reel Western

Featuring Billy Sullivan

Steve is popular with the boys around the ranch. They twit him about the ranch owner's daughter. Billy Regan, an exile from Australia who is almost joshed by the boys, knocks a cigarette out of Hank Watkins' mouth. When Watkins pulls a gun, Billy slashes his whip again, and knocks the weapon out of his hand.

When the mail delivery comes, Billy receives a letter from his mother. The girl, thinking it a missive from a sweetheart of his, becomes jealous. Billy explains matters her, and she invites him to her birthday party.

Billy accuses the girl's sweetheart of intentionally tripping him. Then he takes a walk with her, and she leaves him because he is angry. She re-enters the house, and her sweetheart steps out. Billy knocks him down. The man gets up, and licks him. Hank Watkins slips along, and places a gun at his hand.

Billy seizes it, but he remembers his promise to his mother, and lets it fall. Hearing a rustle in the shrubbery behind him, he reaches out and drags Hank into the open. Everything is immediately revealed to him. He knocks him down, and apologizes to the girl; then he leaves them.
